

Doggie Sleepovers at Canine Creature Comforts

Frequently asked questions:

Should I bring their food?

YES! Your dog should remain on the same food while you are away. Any sudden changes in diet can lead to unnecessary diarrhea.

Will my dog be in a crate?

From time to time the dogs will be put in crates. The dogs will be able to enjoy their meals in peace in a crate where the other dogs can't "share" their food! If we have a dog that is having a hard time settling down we may put them in a crate for a little while to rest. If our cleaning schedule requires it, we may put the dogs into crates for their own safety while we make everything spic and span for them!

Will my dog be supervised?

Yes! That is the beauty of sleepovers. Your dog will enjoy the company of our employees while they are staying with us during the day and over night.

Why is the price different from traditional boarding?

Traditional boarding keeps dogs in separate cages for their entire stay. Many facilities do not have overnight employees. Our service allows your dog to stay in an environment where they already feel safe and have fun. They know the employees and the other dogs. We are offering a comfortable environment that provides a stress free stay for both your dog and for you!

Will my dog get outside?

For our fuzzy clients who will be here several nights, we recommend that you sign him/her up for a field trip. We can take them to the park for a hike, swimming or go to a fenced in area to throw the ball. This service is available any day that your baby stays with us and allows them to romp in the sun for a little while.

What if my dog sleeps in a crate at home?

No problem! We can put a crate in the sleepover area so your dog can continue with their regular routine but still enjoy everyone's company!

Should I bring my dog's toys or blanket/bed?

If your dog sleeps in a crate at home with a favorite bed, blanket or toy, feel free to bring it. If your dog does not normally do this, it is not necessary. We don't want him/her getting upset having to "share" their belongings with the other dogs if they don't want to!

Can I pick my dog up on Sunday?

Yes. If you come during our normal business hours of 12pm – 4pm you can pick up your dog on Sunday. If you pick up your dog on Sunday, a ½ day of daycare will be charged.

Will I be charged for daycare the day I pick up my dog?

On Monday through Saturday, normal daycare pick up hours will apply. If you pick up your dog by 9:30am, there will be no daycare charge. If you pick up your dog by 2pm, a ½ day of daycare will be charged. If you pick up your dog after 2pm and before 7pm, a full day of daycare will be charged. If you have a weekend reservation and want to pick up your dog on Saturday, the overnight fee for Saturday will still be charged.
